

Masthead Logo

Cedarville University
DigitalCommons@Cedarville

Cedars

5-17-1957

Whispering Cedars, May 17, 1957

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, May 17, 1957" (1957). Cedars. 126.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/126>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

WHISPERING CEDARS

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

VOL. I

Friday, May 17, 1957

NO. 10

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 11, 1953, 35 Freshman met at Cedarville College for their orientation into college life. At the first of the year the class organized and elected officers.

At the beginning of the Sophomore year, many familiar faces were missing, but others were added. It was during the fall of '54 that this class started a tradition at Cedarville—that of Freshman initiation.

In the Junior year, the Bible Institute students who were Freshman the year before joined the class and enlarged it somewhat.

Though they failed to catch the Seniors, the Juniors all had a good time at the weiner roast.

This year, the last lap of the journey, the members of the Class of '57 returned in the fall, anxious to complete their work.

Upon organizing, the
continued on page 3

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR SENIORS

Dave Gardner, a graduate of Cedarville, 1956, is now attending Grand Rapids Theological Seminary in preparation for Christian service. Dave, according to a letter he has written us, feels that his training at Cedarville College was gratifying. In his words he states his opinion of the school: "I am very happy for the many things I learned in Cedarville and must say that I feel as well equipped for seminary training, both in specific Bible fields and in associated fields, as any of the others here. (This includes graduates from other leading Christian schools.)"

Dave is a strict advocate of Baptist training for Baptist young people. He feels he has obtained this training at Cedarville under the instruction of godly teachers. He recommends Grand Rapids to those who wish further Christian training.

STAFF

Ruth Tost ed.
Sandy Millikin asst. ed.
Paul Anderson
Eladio Bolanos
Esther Chesebro
Cliff Miller
Tom Shelow
Shirley Shirley
Miss Kantzer advisor

EDITORIAL

This coming May 25th, the miracle of the year will occur on our campus. In short, the class of 1957 will be graduated from Cedarville College.

It's been a long haul, but after cutting, sacking, eating, and loafing their way through our institution, they are about to get the boot.

Though normally a four year college, many of our Seniors have taken 5 or 6 years to beat, thrash or in some other ways get through our academic schedules. We cannot help but wonder if this diploma is not a last resort on the part of the faculty to get rid of these "Scholars."

The reason I am so unkind is that this class has done nothing noteworthy to write about in all of their 4, 5, or 6 years. For the benefit of next year's Staff we hope the Class of '58 does better.

Tom Shelow

FREE WILL

What is the human will? Is it sovereign or servant? Does the will rule the mind or does the mind rule the will? These questions are of extreme practical importance. Jacobus Arminius and his followers tell us that Adam's fall alienated the affections, darkened the intellect, corrupted the body, polluted the heart, but the will escaped and is now "free." Hence, man is only partially depraved and is not dead but only sick.

The will is the faculty of choice, the immediate cause of all action. But as the hand (immediate cause) serves the nerves and muscles of the arm and the brain (primary cause), so the will is the servant of the heart. The Word of God teaches that the heart is the dominating center of the human being (Mark 7:21). Unfallen Adam's will was free to do good and evil but his sons are only free to evil since their hearts are "deceitful above all things and desperately wicked" and "are by nature the children of wrath and disobedience." Hence, the will is not free but is regulated by the sinful nature of man.

Cliff Miller

SENIOR INTERVIEWS

What are you going to do after graduation?

Linda Marshall: "I plan to do secretarial work in the immediate future, and may work in the field of Christian Education later on."

Bill Yost: "After graduation I'll try to form a church at York, Pennsylvania."

Ray Barth: "I intend to do graduate work in English—the Lord willing; my ambition not waning."

Jim Spaulding: "Work this summer and wait for the Lord's leading."

Bob Kissinger: "I may be going on for further education. Plans are not definite."

Florence Beckhold: "This summer I plan to work and after that my plans are indefinite."

Eladio Balanor

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED

The following engagements were announced last week-end: Phyllis Beausay to John Ryerse; Wanda Frye to Chuck Horn; Betsey Mable to Jack Meyer; Linda Marshall to Dick Lapp. Congratulations are in order for all of these fine couples.

The Lord bless you as you seek His will-together.

CLASS HISTORY

(con't from page 1.)

class officers were Ray Barthalemeu, President; Al Yost, Vice-President; Vada Belle Young, Secretary; and Florence Bockhold, Treasurer. Nancy Cope, however, took over the secretarial duties when Vada Belle left school.

The day after Thanksgiving vacation the Seniors staged a successful sneak and left the Junior Class to wait until next year, when they can try their wits again.

Mr. Ambrose has faithfully served as the class advisor for all four years.

In looking back over the last four years, we see that the Senior Class has been actively engaged in studying, athletics, music, and other extra-curricular activities.

SOCIAL NOTES

Last Friday night, in Milnor Chapel, the Bible Clubs presented a program showing their work. Boys and girls from various clubs gave Bible verses and stories which they learned during the past year.

The Chapel Choir gave the first Annual Spring Concert in Milnor Chapel, Sunday evening.

Paul Anderson

Ray Erickson, from Cleveland, has been active in sports during all of his school life at Cedarville.

Ray played basketball his Freshman and Sophomore years and has been active in baseball for 4 years.

Very active in Varsity "C" Club, Ray was president of it last year and is serving as the treasurer this year.

Dick Lapp, who hails from Hamburg, N.Y., is another Senior who has been active in sports.

Dick contributed his services to the basketball team during his Freshman, Sophomore and Junior years and was captain of the team during his first two years of service.

He served the Varsity "C" Club as business manager during his Sophomore year and was secretary when he was a Junior

Jim Hartman has very aptly served Cedarville the past 4 years.

Jim played basketball during his Freshman and Sophomore years, and baseball all four years.

A member of the Varsity "C" Club for four years, he has served the club as treasurer and as vice-president.

Sandra Millikin

ABOUT THOSE SENIORS-----

We wonder....

..why Roy is called the "Barefoot Boy."

..if Ray Barth will get his P.H.D. in one year.

..if Shirley will make a good organ grinder.

..why the Senior Class is trying to keep their class gift a secret.

..if Patsy will speak French to those little French boys.

..if any Junior will ever acquire Albie's Appollinarian form.

..why Ruth doesn't like the class prophecy. Could you tell her, Ray?

..why Florence is so shy.

..why Nancy draws all men like fly paper draws flies.

..why Dale likes to work at the O.S.&S. Home.

..if Linda and Dick will live in W. Virginia after that big day.

..when Harold will start raising "Dodo Birds."

..if Eladio puts his hair in pincurls every night.

..if Doris Dekan will be married by this time next year.

Eather Chesebro

"They had to shoot poor old Fido today."

"Was he mad?"

"Well, he wasn't any too pleased."